(hereinafter referred to as the “subject property”).

The United States having represented to the Court as follows:

1. All of the written notices of intent to forfeit, required by 18 U.S.C. § 983(a)(1)(A) to be sent by the United States Department of Justice, Federal Bureau of Investigation (“FBI”) to interested parties have been sent.

2. On or about January 3, 2022, FBI received an Administrative Claim asserting an interest in the miscellaneous jewelry (except for the Mens Rolex watch) from Claimant Mary Nguyen.

3. On or about January 4, 2022, FBI received an Administrative Claim asserting an interest in the Mens Rolex Watch and miscellaneous firearms, magazines and ammunition from Claimant Ranko Lunic.

4. The time has expired for any other person to file a claim to the subject property under 18 U.S.C. § 983(a)(2)(A)-(E).

5. No other persons have filed a claim to the subject property as required by law in this non-judicial civil forfeiture proceeding.

6. The FBI referred the subject property to the United States Attorney for the Middle District of Georgia, and the time to file a civil forfeiture complaint expired on April 3, 2022.

Claimants Mary Nguyen and Ranko Lunic having been given notice and an opportunity for hearing on the United States' Motion regarding the subject property; and the United States having shown good cause for such an extension and requesting an extension of the statutory deadline as to prevent the unnecessary expenditure of public resources and funds by making it unnecessary to file a complaint for forfeiture against the subject property, which may be followed by an indictment alleging that the property is subject to forfeiture, it is;

ORDERED, under 18 U.S.C. § 983(A)-(C), that the date by which the United States is required to file a complaint for forfeiture against the subject property and/or include in a criminal indictment alleging that the property is subject to forfeiture, is extended to August 1, 2022.

SO ORDERED, this 1st day of June, 2022.
